REGULARS FOR HARMONY. WILLING TO CONFER WITH THE SHEPARDITES.

Kings County's Democratic General Committee Benounces State Committeemen mittee Benounces State Committeemen McCarty. Coffey, Delmar, McCarren, and McCarty. The meeting of the General County Committee of the reorganized Democracy of Kings county last night will long be regarded as a historical one. There were very few of the 685 delegates missing when Col. James D. Bell, the Chairman, called the gathering in the Athenesum building in Atlantic avenue, in Brooklyn, to order, and every seat in the gallery and every inch of standing space were packed with interested speciators. The routine business of fixing the times and places for the primaries and conventions was quickly disposed of, and a resolution endersing he State ticket was carried with loud shouts, The cheers for Hill, Lockwood, and Gaynor could be heard a block away.

A resolution offered by Mr. Callahan, providing that Justice Gaynor should be urged to accept the nomination in the interests of tariff reform and religious liberty, was passed without a dissenting voice.

Mr. Whitehouse then proposed that another and final effort should be made to bring back the erring Shepard brethren into the fold. His resolution provided for the appointment of a committee of five to confer with a committee from the Shepard organizations, with a view to the consolidation of both bodies on an equitable basis. Mr. Whitehouse said it was time to call a halt to the faction quarrels and to take the initiative toward securing real and permanent

Ex-Senator McCarren opposed any further dickering with the Shepard people. He regarded the proposition as cowardly.

Mr. Stewart said he feared the Shepardites would refuse to confer with their representatives in view of the State Committeemen who were said to have been chosen at Saratoga. This was the first reference to State Commit-teemen ex-Senator McCarty, John Delmar, Senator Coffey, and ex-Senator McCarren, but the shout of approval with which it was greeted fully indicated the feeling of resentment among the delegates at their selection as State Committeemen. When Mr. Stewart expressed his astonishmen that these men "should have again dared to hols

When Mr. Stewart expressed his astonialment that these men "should have again dared to hoist themselves forward as representatives of the reorganized Democracy." a wild shout of approval went up, followed by ringing cheers, which lasted nearly two minutes.

It was clear, even at this stage of the proceedings, that the fate of McCarty, Delmar, Coffey, and McCarren for further recognition as leaders of the reorganized Democracy of Kings county was scaled. When Mr. Stewart demanded that the organization should purify itself by repudiating these old leaders, there was a renewal of the cheering.

ating these old leaders, there was a renewal of the cheering.
When Mr. Stewart had finished, Chairman York of the Executive Committee, Judge Neu, and ex-Park Commissioner Brower and other delegates spoke in earnest strains in support of the Whitehouse harmony resolutions.
Assemblyman John J. Hennessey, who also maintained that nothing should be left undone to bring in the Shepard faction, told ex-Senator McCarren that if his memory was good there were 5,000 disgruntled Democrats even in his ewn district last year.
"Let us offer them," Mr. Hennessy said, "this olive branch."

"Let us offer them," Mr. Hennessy said, "this clive branch."

Mr. Marvin sided with ex-Senator McCarren and suggested that Ed M. Shepard be allowed "to go to the devil."

When the resolution finally came to a vote it was swept through by such a large majority that there was no demand for the roll call. The Chairman appointed these on the Conterence committee with the Shepardites: S. S. White-house, Bernard J. York, W. C. Beecher, Robert Stewart, and Assemblyman John J. Hennessey. At this stage of the proceedings a committee from the Young Men's Democratic Club, which had been in session during the evening, arrived, and was assigned seats on the platform. A resolution which had been adopted by the club was handed up and read. It denounced the selection of McCarre, us State Committeemen, as they were not fit representatives of the reorganized Democracy. Each denunciatory sentence of the resolution was loudly applauded.

Ex-Senatar McCarren got the floor for a few moments to detend himself and his associates, but to small purpose. Assistant District Attorney Manuaire then attacked the method by which

Ex-Senatar McCarren got the floor for a few moments to detend himself and his associates, but to small purpose. Assistant District Attorney Maguire then attacked the method by which Coffey was chosen in the Fourth district, and moved that a protest against him be forwarded to the State Committee.

Half a dozen delegates then jumped up, each arased with resolutions denouncing and repudiating the choice of McCarty, Delmar, Coffey, and McCarren, and for half an hour there was a fight to see which resolution should prevail.

Mr. Higginbotham finally succeeded in having his resolution, with some additions from other delegates, made the prevailing one. It not only denounced the methods by which the four State Committeemen were chosen, but summoned them in the name of the reorganized Democracy to resign their places forthwith.

It also directed the delegates from each Congressional district to reassemble within five days and have new elections for State Committeeman. Should they fail in this, it was further provided that the State Committee to called upon to act.

When a delegate referred to certain people at

When a delegate referred to certain people at Saratoga acting as "vampires" there was great cheering.

Mr. Callahan struck the keynote for a further outbreak of enthusiasm when he said: "The methods by which these men have been placed on the State Committee were unfair, irregular, and undemocratic, and we can't submit to such action."

and undemocratic, and we can't submit to such action—"
The Higginbotham resolutions were all adopted with a wild and prolonged shout of "Aye." and not a single delegate cast a dissenting vote. When the chairman announced the vote as nugatinous the delegates arose in a body and shouted themselves hoarse.
The committee then adjourned, and the delegates went home congratulating each other that they had done a great night's work for the King's county Democracy and David R. Hill.
In view of the action of the committee it is expected that the resignations of Messrs. McCarty, Delmar, Coffey, and McCarren will be forwarded immediately.
These were the dates fixed for the primaries and conventions. Primaries, Get. 8; County Convention, Oct. 11; City Convention, Oct. 12; Congress Convention, 13th; Assembly Convention, 15th; town and ward conventions, 15th.

BROOKLYN'S REFORM ALDERMEN.

They Adjourn Their Regular Session to Chip In for Morton and the G. O. P. The fifteen Republican members of the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen, eleven of whom at least were carried into office last year on the reform wave, were all in their places yesterday in the Common Council Chamber when President Wallace rapped for order.

Soon after the proceedings had got under way Alderman Roeder, without any explanation, moved an adjournment for fifteen minutes. The Republicans all voted for the motion, the four Republicans all voted for the motion, the four Democratic members, who were completely in the dark as to the purpose in view, declining to vote one way or the other.

Directly after the adjournment, Alderman Roader corralied his Republican associates, and under the escort of City Clerk Benjamin they were marched to one of the anic rooms, and when all were safely inside the door was locked, it was then explained by Mr. Roader that an important political campaign had been started and that if effective work for Morton and the G. P. was to be done in Brooklyn, money would have to be forthcoming. He said that the Republican Aldermen should set an example to the party leaders and the rank and file in general by starting a campaign fund.

The proposition was heartly approved and each man chipped in, the amounts ranging from $250, which was Alderman Carvy scontribution, to $75. After performing this patriotic duty, the reform Aldermen went back to the laborious public duties.

SCHIEREN FOR A UNION TICKET.

He Wants the Republicaus and Shepardites to Get Together as They Bid Last Year, Mayor Schieren, who was elected a year ago on supposed non-partisan platform, is nevertheler staking a very lively interest in the progress of the campaign in Brooklyn this year. A few nights ago he made a speech for Morton and Saxton and incidentally scored Tammany Hall in particular, and the Democratic organiza-

in parcicular, and the Democratic organiza-tica in general.
Yesterday he announced that he was very strongly in favor of the movement which has been started for a union of the kepublicans and Shepardites in the local campaign. He says they shoot together fast year, and he does not she any reason why the alliance should not con-tinue. A union ticket, in his opinion, anothing to interest of their fast property of the countries. It is she could be to see any reason of their organization of the country ticket and also in the city toket, and for have two or three of their Assembly can-diates endorsed by the Republicans. If there is no hitch in the argangements, Mayor Schieren has promised to take the atump for the combina-tion toket.

SENATOR HILL IN TOWN. the Republicans Open Rendquarters - Isane in the Campaign,

John Boyd Thacher and those who are assist ing him in selecting the campaign headquarters have not come to a decision. Mr. Thacher believes that the headquarters abould not be as lose to Madison square as in recent years, and he favors a house in Twenty-pinth sireet, two doors east of the Gilsey House.
The old Southern Club in West Twenty-fifth

The old Southern Club in West Twenty-fifth street has come in for some consideration. Major Hinckley and Clerk DeFreest were at the Grand Central station last evening to meet sonator Hill, and later in the evening for meet sonator Hill, and later in the evening Mr. Hill and Mr. Thacher discussed affairs.

The general impression was that Judge Gaynor would accept the nomination if for no other reason that, like Senator Hill and Mr. Lockwood, he is considered a plucky tighter, and one of given to showing his back to the enemy.

The Republicans opened up shop in the Fifth Avenue Hotel vesterday, and are already pegding away on the campaign. Additional rooms have been hired, and one is the headquarters of Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., of Newburgh, the new Chafrana of the Executive Committee. Deacon Charlie Hackett of Utica, who succeeded William Brookfield as Chalrman of the State Committee, has another room, and John S. Kenyon, Secretary, and Reuben L. Fox and all other officials of the State Committee are very handsomely provided. It has been said that the Republicans are to flood the State with oratory, but that will not be decided until the meeting of the Executive Committee on Thursany Mr. Platt was in Boston yesterday, and he will be home in time to confer with the Executive Committeemen on this subject. Mr. Morton himself is not a speech-maker.

maker. Some some seven maker and for seven to the seven to the Democratic enthusiasm. He is a master hand at organization, and is acquainted with the minutest details of the political complexion of the smallest hambet in the State. He will shake things up from the moment he enters the fight. Mr. Lockwood is also good at oratory. Major Hinckley, the new Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, is reckoned a keen politician. Mr. Thacher, who is associated with Major Hinckley, is regarded by Sentatr Hill as one of the best organizers in the State.

stor Hill as one of the best organizers in the State.

Senator Hill himself said last night that Mr. Odell was a mighty clever Republican. Mr. Odell is cool and calm and crafty. The enemy will not catch him writing any letters which should not be written and which if intercepted will hurt his cause.

On the Republican side of the fight Mr. Platt will be the chief director, and his Democratic adversaries do not underrate his ability. The Republicans are very much pleased because Mr. Odell has been made Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The political situation in the State is discussed

The political situation in the State is discussed by Democrats and Republicans. The opinion is that the Democrats have most to fear from the commercial depression. The bombardment of Tammany by the Lexow Committee is another feature. The Republicans have practically a united party. But by their silence at Saratoga the Republicans, as their adversaries believe, have tacitly endorsed the A. P. A., and the Democrats think that that will prove to have been a very bad blunder.

The Republicans have already taken steps to revive the Maynard issue. They have collected Senator Hill's utterances on the Maynard matter during last year's campaign, and this, with an appeal to the bad business situation, is to be the chief stock in trade of the Republican campaigners.

speaking of the Maynard matter, influential Democrats said last night that if necessary at the proper time inside history hitherto unpublished will be brought out, possibly to the discomfiture of the Republican critics.

Senator Hill does not underestimate the wiles of the enemy, and he says very candidly that it is a time for all Democrats to get together. He points to the proposed apportionment which is to be precipitated upon the voters on election day. This apportionment if it becomes a law will give the Republicans the State for an indefinite period.

The significance of this action lies in the fact that most of the members of the Civic Union are specially friendly politically to William R. Grace, who has been conferring since his return from Europe with gentlemen who are desirous of naming a third State ticket. Mr. Brophy, the President of the Union, was appointed only a few days ago a deputy to internal Revenue Collector Edward Grosse.

HUGH J. GRANT OUT OF IT.

He Will Not Eun for Mayor or for Any Other Office This Year.

Several Tammany district leaders have been fostering a boom for Hugh J. Grant for Mayor ever since they noted the enthusiasm with which the ex-Mayor's name was received at the which the ex-Mayor's name was received at the Saratoga Convention. Mr. Grant had heard nothing of it until yesterday, when he made the following statement to a reporter of The Sux:

"Of course I was pleased by the way in which my name was greeted in the State Convention. I would be little more than human if I were not. I would be little more than human if I were not. I would be little more than human if I were not. I would be surprise was so great as almost to overcome me. When I was in office as Mayor of the city of New York I tried to do whatever seemed to me to be to the best interests of the city, and it was gratifying to me to learn that what I did was so satisfactory to the people of the city of New York that their gratification had been communicated to, and had affected, the Democrats of the rest of the State. But now that you tell me what is on foot in this city, let me say to you that I am sate so blinded by the applituse of my friends as not to see and do my duty. I have made an agreement with business associates not to take a political office for at least two years. My business is of such a nature that it demands my constant attention. I shall keep my agreement and attend to my private hat it demands my constant attention. I shall keep my agreement and attend to my private that interest in politics which every cityen should have, but it is not bottomed upon the desire for office. Whatever I can do for the Democratic party I shall do, but I shall do it as a private citizen." Saratoga Convention, Mr. Grant had heard

While down town he was approached by poli-White down town as was approximate of post-icans of all stripes and some personal friends on the question of his nomination, but he did-not let drop a single word indicative of his intentions as to its acceptance or declination. When asked a direct question about the matter he said:

I have nothing to say. The time has not come for me to say anything, and there is no use in trying to get me to talk.

He also said that thus far he had made no arrangements to meet the Notification Committee. The shepardites were apparently more confident than ever yestarday that Justice Gaynor would not accept a place on the Saraloga ticket.

TAMMANY'S COUNTY CONVENTION. Gilroy, Cockrun, and Grant Among the Delegates Choses.

JOHN E. WANTS TO CONFER

THE MILHOLLAND CROWD, UNIN-VITED, APPOINT A COMMITTEE

Must Be a Republican, They Say, Who Is Nominated for Mayor at the Head of a Fusion Ticket if the Ticket Is to Win. Although it is admitted that they have not been formally invited by the Committee of Seventy or any other organization to participate in a conference, the Milholland Republicans in County Convention assembled last night apsointed a conference committee, and are hopeful that they may yet have something to say about the nomination of the anti-Tammany ticket. The Milhollandites are a hopeful lot. They hoped for everything, have got nothing so far, and continue to hope.

Their County Convention was held in Scottish Rite Hall, at Madison avenue and Twenty-ninth street. The little hall was full of delegates, and the delegates were full of enthusiasm for Milholland.

Convention to order, Mr. Milholland taking a seat in the body of the bouse. He was sighted by a lookout in the gallery who started cheering for him, which was kept up for a minute or more. A brass band brought by the Bohemian contingent from the Twenty-second Assembly district added to the uproar, and the noise led an enthusiast to shout: "Who says we're dead?" Otto Irving Wise was chosen for Chairman. He made a speech rather mild in character, the strongest proposition in it being that Milholland will be at the head of the regular Republican will be at the field of the regular Republican organization of the county next year. His ref-erences to the Republican candidates on the State ticket were cheered.

Much time was consumed in calling the roll for the purpose of proving that, despite the se-cession of Gen. Kerwin and his friends, Milhol-land is still on top and has an organization to lead.

casson of teen. Kerwin and his Friends, Milholland is still on top and has an organization to lead.

Leon Cohen of the Sixteenth said that he considered it injudicious at this time for the organization to make nominations, and he moved the appointment of a committee of one from each Assembly District, with Milholland and Wise added, for the purpose of conferring with other anti-Tammany organizations.

William F. Italy desired to amend the resolition by declaring it the sense of the Convention that none but a Republican be run for Mayor, but withdrew his amendment. James R. Angel of the Twenty-ninth, in seconding the resolution, said:

"If we must have a committee, let it be understood that there must be no mixing up with Mugwumps and disgruntled bemocrats."

Milholland apologized for having to go back on the straight-ticket declaration made by the organization last spring, and said that they would not have had to go back on it if they had been recognized as regular, as they should have been.

Mr. Milholland declared that a union ticket.

Mr. Mitholland declared that a union ticket, unless it had a Republican at its head, could not succeed. A resolution to this effect was adonted after the appointment of the Conference Committee of thirty-two.

The Convention then adjourned at the call of the Chair, and the Conference Committee took stock of Jimmies preparatory to making a burglarious attempt to force their way into the Committee of Seventy's conference.

NEW YORK'S NEXT CONGRESSMEN. Proposed Shifting and Changes in the Tammany Delegation. Next Thursday night the Tammany Hall Congress Conventions will be held. There has been the liveliest kind of electioneering for several weeks, and yesterday the Mayor's office was filled with men who would like to represent the certain that there will be changes in the sitting delegation, but no slate has been definitely determined on. In fact, some of the conventions next Thursday evening may be adjourned.

Here are some of the changes that are considered probable: E. J. Dunphy, of the Eighth; Timothy J. Campbell, of the Ninth, and John DeWitt Warner, of the Thirteenth to be re-DeWitt Warner, of the Thirteenth to be retired. Amos J. Cummings, of the Eleventh, to succeed Franklin Bartlett in the Seventh, which is Mr. Cummings's own district; Mr. Bartlett to be nominated in place of Mr. Warner in the Thirteenth district, and ex-Speaker William Sulzer in place of Mr. Cummings in the Eleventh district.

Nothing definite has been determined regarding the succession to Congressman Dunphy in the Eighth. Col. William L. Brown wants the nomination there, and so do ex-Assemblyman Peroival Farquhar and Alderman Nicholas T. Brown.

Brown.

The turning down of Tim Campbell, which was foreshadowed in The Sun last spring, is considered a certainty, and Harry C. Miner hopes to step into Tim's shoes. There are local candidates over on the Hook whose friends obtained in the step of the step andidates over on the Hook whose friends object to Miner's nomination. Among the strongest of these is Assemblyman Samuel J. Foley.

The opposition to the renomination of Gen. Daniel E. Sickles in the Tenth district comes from Gen. Martin T. McMahon and his friends. Gen. McMahon wanted the nomination in 1892. Gen. Sickles visited Mayor Gilroy yesterday, and it was stated after his visit that there is little doubt of his renomination.

No one but Congressman Cockran is talked of for the nomination in the Twelfth district. Who will make the race in the Fourteenth—Quigg's district—is yet undetermined, but there has been mention of the name of ex-Assemblyman John Connelly.

Congressman Isidor Straus, who went to Connelly.

Congressman Isidor Straus, who went to Europe with Prof. Wilson of West Virginia, has stated that he does not desire a reelection, and it has been practically decided to nominate Senator Jacob A. Cantor to succeed him from the Fifteenth district.

Nothing more definite than this can be stated with reference to the Congress nominations until the meeting of the Tammany Hall Executive Committee to-morrow afternoon, when it is possible that the names of all the candidates may be made public.

The Republican Congress Conventions are scheduled for to-night, but it is understood that it is the purpose to adjourn them all until the matter of the municipal ticket has been settled.

SHIELDS IS COMMISSIONER, TOO Need Not Give Up that Office Because Ho

In Clerk of the U. S. Circuit Court. Judge Lacombe, in the United States Circuit Court, gave yesterday a decision of importance to all clerks of the United States District and Circuit courts, who also act as Commissioners of those courts, when he decided that John A. Shields could act as United States Commis sioner in addition to being Clerk of the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York.

A law went into effect on July 31 which provided that no person who holds a Federal office which yields a salary or annual compensation of $2.500 shall be appointed to hold any other office to which compensation is attached. Upon the passage of the law Mr. Shields refused to continue to act as Commissioner until his right to do so had been passed upon by the court.

Judge Lacombe held that no fixed salary or compensation was attached to the office of Clerk of the United States Circuit Court. Fees were given as an emolument, but the amount of the fees could never be determined until the close of the fixed year, which would be too late in decide his right to act as Commissioner. Mr. Shields is, therefore, directed to act as Commissioner in the case of Sandow against Attila, upon which the question was raised. Mr. Shields has been in the Clerk's office of the United States Circuit Court since April, 1855. He has been a Commissioner since 1809 and Clerk since 1888. CONNECTICUT TOWN ELECTIONS.

Republican Gains Throughout the State Many Towns Vote for License. NEW HAVEN, Oct. 1 .- Elections for the choice of Town Clerks and Justices of the Peace and for the purpose of voting on the liquor-license question were held to-day in the various towns throughout the State, while in Norwich and New London city officers were balloted for. Much interest is attached to the election from the fact that the A. P. A. has taken a prominent part in the campaign.

The town of Orange, in which Savin Rock, a famous summer resort, is located, elected a full Republican ticket by a good round majority, a complete turn-over from last year, and declared for license. Milford went solidly Republican for the first time in thirty years. Reports from other towns in this county, show an increased Republican vote.
Winsted, Oct. 1.—All towns in Litchfield.

county show Republican gains. Winsted is Republican, the majority ranging from 300 to 400. License was carried by 53 majority. Norfolk went Republican by 53 majority; Torrington Republican by majority, and license by 141 majority; New Hartford Republican by 85 majority, and license by 18 majority; Riverton Republican by 9 majority, and no license by 131 majority; Hartland Republican by 20 majority; Colebrook and Canaan both voted for license.

NORWICH, Oct. 1.—The Republicans carried Norwich by 530 majority, electing the entire icket, except the Town Clerk. Ledyard, a Democratic stronghold, elected a Republican by 40 majority. Preston repeated its Republican victory of last year. Bozrah and Colchester, Republican last year, are Democratic this year. New London has elected a Democratic Mayor. The Council will have a Republican majority.

New London has elected a Democratic Mayor. The Council will have a Republican majority. Dransy, Oct. 1.—Huntington and Seymour town elections resulted in favor of the Republicans. There was a fight in Huntington over the license question. No license was carried by 17 majority.

Hartford, Oct. 1.—Returns from forty towns in this part of the State show that the Republicans gain ten towns. There has been a large increase in the Republican vote in every town, and the Democratic vote has fallen off in nearly corresponding degree. The flopaver, from the towns so far heard from, indicate a Republican landslide throughout the State.

In New Britain the citizent 'ticket was victorious and the vote on license was reversed. One year ago the town voted no license by 900 majority. During the year a vigorous crusade had been waged against the illegal liquor sellers, and to-day the town voted for license by over 1,100 majority.

The year-by town of Plainville, which voted to-day the town voted for license by over 1,100 majority.

The near-by town of Plainville, which voted license last year, has this year voted no license. In other places in this section the no-license vote has increased.

In Middletown the Republicans carried every ward and elected their entire ticket. The Republican vote in Andover was thrown out as illegal, because the words "to fill a vacancy" appeared on the ballot opposite the name of one of the candidates. The vote cast through the State was large, the gains appearing wholly on the Republican side.

STAMFORD, Oct. 1.—This town to-day gave the biggest Republican majority since the war. The first Selectman, Edward S. Holly, received 519 majority, and the others ranged from 200 to 300. The majority for license is 203. The Republicans indulged in a grand celebration to-night.

ROCKYILLE, Gct. 1. *One of the hardest fought contests on the license question known in this section of the State occurred in the town of Ellington to-day. The town voted no license last year for the first time in its history. The Ellington Law and Order League waged a successful war on illegal liquor selling during the past year, but the town to-day voted for license by sixteen majority. Vernon and Rockville voted for license.

THE ALBANY REPUBLICAN CONTEST. A Bectaton that Overrules the Bectaton of ALBANY, Oct. 1.—The closeness of the contest between the Barnes and Weaver factions of the Albany Republicans for the control of the County Convention to-day provoked a resort of the Weaverites to the law for a settlement of a contest over the election of delegates in the Sixteenth ward of Albany. An application was made before Judge Mayham in the Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus, to compel the returning officers to sign the certificate of election for the Weaver delegates, Eugene Burlingame appeared for the Weaverites and Henry C. Nevitt argued for the Barnes organization. County Judge Clute granted a mandamus last week compelling George M. Burnett, President of the Sixteenth ward organization, a Barnes man, to sign the returns of primary. Mr. Nevitt held before Judge Mayham that, as the Republican State Committee had passed upon the question by recognizing the regularity of the Barnes organization convention, in which the anti-Weaver delegates participated, there was a question whether Judge Clute had the power to take the course he did. Judge Mayham overruied Mr. Nevitt, and said that he would decide for once and for all time that the courts had full power. He ordered that a peremptory mandamus be issued to compel Burnett to sign the returns.

Afterward Justice Mayham granted Mr. Nevitt a stay for ten days, saying that he hoped to see the matter decided by the highest court. The Barnes organization will appeal to the General Term, and the Judge said that time would be given after the expiration of the stay for the holding of the County Convention if the Weaverites should so desire.

Had this writ been issued before the State Convention acted in accordance therewith, the anti-Barnes delegates from Albany county would have numbered sixteen, instead of leaving the delegation 11 to 11, a tie. The Republican State Committee at their meeting last Wednesday held that Mr. Barnes should retain his seat. Judge Clute had the power to take the course he

DAYTON CONGRATULATES HILL The Senator Says He Has Not Yet Heard

yet heard from the Notification Committee. He thinks that the State Committee is waiting until good campaign headquarters have been secured before notifying the candidates. He had heard from Major Hinkley that he was having trouble in getting just what was wanted. In answer to a query as to whether he thought it likely that the committee would notify the candidates together in New York, the Senator said it might be done. He had noticed that Mr. Morton and the Republican candidates were to come together for a similar purpose at Rhinecome together for a similar purpose at Rhine beck, and thought it a good way. Ten New Beputy United States Marshals.

It Was Over a Story that He Suggested Stampede of the Convention to Mill.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1. Senator Gorman was in Washington to-day, looking the picture of health and apparently at peace with all the world. The Senator positively declined to dis-cuss politics, but he laughed with his friends over the publication in an afternoon paper of a long article announcing the discovery that Mr. Gorman is responsible for the sudden and unexpected stampeds of the recent New York Convention to Senator Hill. The article says that while the Maryland Senator was at Saratoga he heard reports of the situation of the party in the State from all the leaders, and listened in every case with earnest attention. He solicited the fullest information. He agreed to the proposition that the emergency was of the very gravest, and that it called for the best leadership obtainable.

" Let's run over the list of your possibilities," he is reported to have said to each and every one of his interrogators. Only two names seemed to interest him. He declared that either Mr. Whitney or Senator Hill would be an inspiring candidate, and that one or the other ought to be forced to take the Gubernatorial nomination But neither will run and Whitney is out of the country," was objected.

"Senator Hill is at home," Mr. Gorman sug-

Then followed a thorough discussion of the enior New York Senator's relation to the existing situation and what it demanded of him. The New Yorkers, without exception, were confident that Mr. Hill could not be induced to lead the fight. He had repeatedly declared as much, they said, and they could think of no way to make him change his mind. "Draft him," is said to have been Mr. Gor-man's laconic reply. Its then proceeded to show how it could be

He's a delegate to the Convention, isn't be?"

"He's a delegate to the Convention, isn't he?"
Mr. Gorman asked.
"Yes," was the reply,
"Then put him in the chair and keep him there, and when the time comes let the Convention rise up as one man and nominate him. The responsibility will then be put upon him, and Yee no doubt he'll meet it and make the race."
The suggestion illuminated the whole problem.
The New Yorkers were delighted, and discussion of details was at once begun. The idea at first was to have Bourke Cockrane make the stampeding speech, but Mr. Gorman overruigd this with the suggestion that Mr. Hill might growdistrustful at the sight of a nominationbearing Cuckoo. The details as carried out in the Convention were finally arranged, however, and Hill nominated.

Senator Gorman did not deny the truth of this pretty story to-day. He simply laughed at it and said that while at Saratoga he attended strictly to pleasure seeking and rest.

POLITICS IN DUTCHESS COUNTY. Republicans Think that This Is Their Year and Have Many Candidates,

POUGHNEEPSIE, Oct. 1 .- Exciting scenes were itnessed at the Republican caucuses in this city to-day for the election of delegates to the County and City Conventions, A larger vote was polled than for years before, and at many caucuses Democrats voted with the same freedom as Republicans. This struggle for delegates owes its origin to a notion the Republicans have that this is to be their year. The Democrats now hold all the city and nearly all the ounty offices.
At the caucuses to-day the chief contest was between the "Haubermestel" and "Williams's" tickets. The "Haubermestel" ticket, which includes Count Howland for Sheriff, Mayor William Haubermestel for County Treasurer, and Casper Odell for Recorder, was backed by the friends of ex-Collector Robert H. Hunter, the former Republican leader in Dutchess county, and is credited with having carried five out of the seven wards in the city. On the other side, Charles Williams for County Treasurer, Jerry Pearce for Sheriff, and Charles Cossum for Recorder all stood in together, and are said to have been backed by State Committeeman Lewis H. Vail and his friends. This ticket is credited with having carried the Fifth and Sixth wards only. It is already whispered that many delegates may vote differ-ently from the way they are expecten to, and that a big surprise will be sprung when the conventions meet. As it stands now the "Hau-bermestel." men are claiming everything in sight. and is credited with having carried five out of

The Republican County and Second Assembly District Conventions will be held in this city on Thursday. A. B. Gray, the present Assemblyman from the Second district, will be renominated without opposition. In addition to the candidates previously mentioned, Theodore Hoffman, who was removed from the office of County Clerk by Gov. Hill, Sheriff Bartlett, and Edgar Brigger are candidates for County Clerk; George Wood, Fred E. Ackerman, S. H. Brown, John Schlosser, and George Esselstyn, for District Attorney; Myron Smith and George Allen, for Superintendent of the Poor; Charles N. Arnold, Lewis H. Vall, and Peter Van Wagenen, for Mayor of Poughkeepsic.

Cleveland's Letters Not Omitted from the Campaign Book.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 .- Senator Faulkner, Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, said of the article charging the Committee, said of the article charging the committee with expurgating the letters of President Cleveland from the campaign book.

"It is only necessary, in order to remove any question of doubt that may arise by reason of this political effort of our oppenents, to say that the omission occurred in only thirty copies of the entire first edition, through an error of the printer in binding the book. All the others contained those letters, and the second edition, which is now coming in this evening, printed from the same plates, contain them also."

Preparing to Welcome Mr. Wilson Home GRAPTON, W. Va., Oct. 1 .- The Democrats of his district propose giving Congressman W. L. Wilson a reception upon his return from Europe, the details of which are now being arranged by the secretary of the Democratic National Campaign Committee and the Chairman of the District Committee. Mr. Wilson will arrive in New York next Saturday and proceed at once to his home in Charlestown. On the Monday following he will make the opening speech of his campaign.

OH! FOR STRENGTH!

He Talks to the Merchants' Exchange NERVES, TIRED, HAUSTED BODIES. WEAK St. Louis, Oct. 1. -Gov. McKinley had a hearty reception on his arrival here this morn-

The Complaint of Thousands Upon Thousands Health and Strength Are Within Your Grasp Dr. Greene's Nervoya Makes You Strong and Well-It Is the Great

Ob those nerves of over how they do bother us! Weak, tired, and nervous is the complaint everywhere. We overwork, dissipate, weaken our bodies, ruin our health, and finally break down. Steeplessness and indigestion are early symptoms, for the nerves are too exhausted and trritable to permit rest, and the stomach too weak to digest food.

It is nerve and brain exhaustion which makes the brain tired, and the arm nerveless, the limbs trembling, the muscles weak, and the whole body without strength, energy, or ambition. It is loss of nerve and vital power which is slowly but surely sapping the very life itself, and unless help is sought from the right source the end will be shattered nerves, insanity with softening of the brain, nervous prostration, heart failure, paralysis or premature death.

Howare of such symptoms: A well-known drug-gist, Charles W. Eggleston, Esq. 329 Park ave-nue, Worcester, Mass., suffered from nervous prostration and all its terrible symptoms. Ho-writes the following letter telling what he knows is the best way to get well:

"Some time ago I was taken with nervous prostration, I suffered terribly with my nerves and could get no sleep at all. I became fearfully exhausted, my stomach was in a terrible condi-tion from dyspepsia, and I could eat hardly any-thing. be shattered nerves, insanity with softening of

of the hotel. There were hundreds still waiting at the rear of the line when the reception was cut short in order that the members of the Merchants' Exchange might niect him. By the time he arrived at the hall of the Exchange the floor and galleries were packed.

The Governor was introduced by President W. G. Boyd, who referred to him asan acknowledged leader of one of the great political parties and attnired by those not in accordance with his political views. Gov. McKinley acknowledged the compliment, and then continued:

"What we want in this country, no matter to what political party we may belong, is business prosperty [cheers], and whatever will bring that about we mean to have. This country is too great, its resources are too mighty, to admit of anything permanent standing in the way of its progress and its prosperity; and wintever stands in the way must get out of the way. Great applause.

"For we are all for our own country, first, last, and all the time. I congratulate you on your conservatism in business, We have gone through eighteen months of panic, and yet I am told that this city has survived without a single fallure against her. That is a remarkable history to make. I congratulate you also on being the fifth city on this great American continuent, and I wish for all of you, for the business of the city, and the business of the State, the largest possible presserity."

Gov. McKinley was loudly cheered when he retired from the deak. Afterward he shook hands with a large portion of the audience.

Five thousand men and women assembled in Suborban Hall to-night at the inanguration of Republican State campaign. Channers J. Filley, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, called the assemblage to order. When "I used several medicines but without benefit. Being in the drug business myself, and having had many customers speak in the highest terms of Dr. Greene's Nertura blood and nerve remedy, i determined to try it. After taking one-half bottle I began to feel much better.

"I sleept soundly all night, and my appetits was splendid. After taking three bottles I at three square meals a day, and had not the slightest distress. My nerves were perfectly strong and I felt like a new man, being completely cured of all my troubles.

and I fell like a new man, being completely cured of all my troubles.

Out of the respect I bear the manufacturers of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and my desire to lave the sick and suffering made well and strong, I unhesitatingly say that this medicine is the best and most wonderful remedy known to-day.

"It does just what Issaid of It, it cures disease, Don't hesitate to use it, sufferers, for you will never regret it. You will be made well and strong."

As this letter is from a dealer in medicine, his word is authority on such matters. Everybody knows that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the great leading medicine of the age. Take it and you will be made strong, healthy, and vigorous. Doctors recommend it because it is the prescription of a physician, and because then have it care.

Five thousand men and women assembled in suburban Hall to-night at the inauguration of Republican State campaign. Channey I, Filley, Chairman of the Republican: State Central Committee, called the assemblage to order. When he pronounced McKinley the practicable nomine of the Republicans in 1806, the cheering was lond and long continued.

The Ohio Governor discussed at length the tariff policy of the Democrats in the last session of Congress, and insisted that the people who desired a change were clamoring for an opportunity to render a verdict on the national administration. They never wanted to vote so badly in all their lives as they want to vote now. When he referred to the result of the Maine election a man up in the rafters shouted. They gave us back Tom Reed, "amid great cheering. Gov. McKinley reolled: "Yes, they gave us back Tom Reed, and if the Republicans of Missouri and other States do their duty, we will again give that distinguished gentleman an opportunity of pressiling over the House of Representatives." At this there were prolonged shouts of "We will!"

"What's the matter with the tin bucket?" yelled amechanic.

"We have got the same dinner p.il," retorted the speaker, "but we haven't got as much dinner to put into it."

"We have free soup," came another voice.

"Yes," returned the Governor, "but the American workingman spurns the charity of free soup, and in 1892, and for thirty years preceding he ate his own soup at his own table and at his dwn fireside." HARRISON AND THE PRESIDENCY

To a United Press correspondent Judge Scott Said to-day that while Gen. Harrison is in no sense a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination, he would not decline the honorwere it tendered him unanimously ,without any effort on his part.

"The General told me," said Judge Scott, "that he is not anxious for another four years." "The General told me," said Judge Scott,
"that he is not anxious for another four years'
siege of officeholders, who, during his first term, made life a burden to him. It would not be so bad, said ex-President Harrison, had he been reelected, but as it is the old worry and trouble might have to be gone through with again, and he could not well stand it."

Politics in New Mexico. SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 1. - By making a strong fight upon the free wool and free lead issues, the Republican party expects to carry the Territory in the fall elections and send T. B. Catron, a well-known lawyer of this city, to Congress, to succeed Delegate Joseph, the Democratic nominee. Catron has one thing against him. He was a partner of Dorsey in a number of the land grant cases, and for this he will be opposed strongly in the campaign. The Republican party, however, is for the first time in many years united, and is making a great fight for Supremacy.

The issue of Statehood will be the principal question during the campaign. The Democrats argue that as the Administration and both Houses of Congress are in the hands of the Democrats, Statehood may be secured if New Mexico Houses of Congress are in the hands of the Democrats, Statehood may be secured if New Mexico proves to be strongly Democratic. It was the argument that he had been working for so many years in Congress for Statehood that secured for Joseph his fifth renomination. He was strongly opposed by Gov. Thornton and other administrative Democrats, but the question of Statehood was deemed more important than party differences at this time.

The Populist party for the first time has placed a candidate in the field—T. B. Mills of Las Vegas. The Populists think they will muster 1,500 votes, drawn largely from the Democratic party.

Chairman Wilson's Prospects of Re-elec

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1. - Mr. Lawrence Gardner, the Chairman of the Democratic National Congressional Committee, does not believe that Congressman W. L. Wilson of West Virginia the author of the Tariff bill, will be defeated. the author of the Tariff bill, will be defeated, On the contrary, he is satisfied that Mr. Wilson will be reflected, and that, too, by a substantial majority. He returned from a hasty visit to Mr. Wilson's district this morning. He found the hemocrats there, he says, very enthusiastic. Many of the rank and file who have been disposed to hold aloof from Mr. Wilson because of the Tariff bill are gradually returning to the party fold. Before election day the party will be, he thinks, a unit again.

A SET BACK FOR GERRYMANDERERS A Republican Plan to Win Jersey City Freeholders May Fall.

After the ward lines in Jersey City had been fixed in accordance with a plan prepared by the Republican bosses, an application was made to Justice Lippincott for a writ of certiorari to reaction of the ward line Commissioners to the Supreme Court for review. The writ was granted. As the Supreme Court will be unable to hear the case until after the election in November.

this decision prevents voting in the wards as gerrymandered. The Republican managers thought they might overcome the difficulty by getting Justice Lipovercome the difficulty by getting Justice Lip-pincott to suspend the writ so that the election could be held. An application to that effect was made a few days ago. In denying the applica-tion yesterday Justice Lippincott said that the election of freeholders could be held under the old law, or the Legislature, which convenes in Trenton to-day, could pass a new law to cover the case. If the election is held under the old law the Democrats will have a fair chance of re-taining their majority in the Board.

This is Dr. Arbuthnot's first trip to America, and he means to visit the principal cities of the country before he returns to England. He will also visit Fredericksburg. Va., to investigate the story concerning a tombstone which bears the inscription: "Here lies the body of one of Shakespeare's pall bearers." Concerning this legend little is known in this country and less in England, according to Dr. Arbuthnot. He says that the stone is marked 1618, or only two years after the death of the poet, and it seems rather strange that this pall bearer should die in America so short a time afbearer should die in America so short a time af-ter Shakespeare's death.
